Other information:

By signing this document, the client declares and recognises that:

If no customs tariff number is stated an accurate description of the goods must be presented and formulated in such a way that a nomenclature code can be unequivocally assigned. The declarant/client is responsible for the correct classification of goods to be registered. The documents legally required for customs clearance and any evidence of power of representation must be presented at the appropriate time during customs declaration.

I/we agree to pay all costs, duties, subsequent invoices, delayed payments, interest, collections etc. which arise as a result of this agreement.

Our work is solely based on the latest version of the General German Conditions for Forwarding Agents, ADSp. This is available for download on our homepage.

Place of performance and jurisdiction for both sections is exclusively Mannheim, Germany.
